Frank B. Ford
Greene Street Artists
5225 Greene Street
Philadelphia, PA 19144-2927
phone(215)848-7385; email vegt@netaxs.com

Quite So

The pennants snapped madly at the gas station as the rainy wind blew for some minutes. In the ozone rush afterwards, Celia, grad student, and two months out of the Sisters of Mercy, acted.

Dr Windslow, standing in the ODD TOMES window, read an atlas-sized book on dance, absorbed not by the art, but its metaphoric range into Political Science. A monograph formed: "Wilson and Clemenceau, the Dance of Political Realism."

She, entering -Excuse me, but in every dance from our generation, one must lead and the other follow. I will lead for now.

-Quite so.